Property Management Service

Owen Reilly is a leading residential agency specialising in sales, lettings and property management in Dublin with offices in Dublin central, Docklands and South Dublin.

As part of our Property Management service for multi-unit developments, we believe there is an opportunity for us to offer a more personalised service to both owners and residents. We fully understand that each development and set of owners are unique, so we offer a bespoke service specific to each individual development's requirements.

We are a progressive and technology driven company with dynamic ideas and advanced processes. As Managing Agents, we promise to fully oversee the efficient running of every development and to ensure that all common areas and services are maintained to the highest standard. We will support each Owners' Management Company and work under full instruction of each company's Board of Directors.

Our focus is to provide a fully open and transparent service to our clients, with a promise to address all maintenance issues quickly and cost effectively ensuring every asset is well managed.
